GRANT INFORMATION

The College Cost Reduction and Access of 2007 created the Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant Program, which provides up to $4000 per year ($16000 total for 4-year programs) in grants to undergraduate students who commit to 1) teach full-time 2) in high-need subject areas 3) for at least four years AND 4) at schools that serve students from low-income families. Graduate students may be eligible for $4000 per year ($8000 total) with these same commitments. If the commitments are not fulfilled that grant is permanently converted to a loan to be repaid by the recipient. The loan is an unsubsidized Direct Federal Stafford Loan with interest calculated from the time of the grant disbursement. At the University of Pittsburgh this program is only offered to students at the graduate level who meet the criteria as determined by the University of Pittsburgh’s School of Education.

☐ I will provide to the US Department of Education that I completed the teaching obligation and this will be certified by the elementary or secondary school’s chief administrator officer at 4 academic years of teaching service.

SECTION B: STUDENT CERTIFICATION
I understand that the TEACH Grant Program has specific service obligations that must be met in order for the award to remain as a grant. If I fail to meet all of the conditions of the award or if the conditions are not documented as required, I understand that the award will permanently convert to an unsubsidized Direct Federal Stafford Loan and that I will be responsible to repay this loan with interest calculated from the disbursement date of the grant. I understand that once a TEACH Grant is converted to a loan, it cannot be converted back to grant. If I am qualified based on the 3.25 GPA requirements, I must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 for each subsequent disbursement. I will notify the Financial Aid Office, in writing, immediately if I do not want to receive the TEACH Grant Award. I realize that annual awards will be processed automatically if I meet the requirements if I do not cancel the award. I may cancel or reduce my award at any point up to 14 days after funds have been disbursed. If I cancel after a disbursement, I may owe the University of Pittsburgh for the amount cancelled or reduced.
